Okta Premier Learning Pass

Accelerate your identity and security initiatives with an annual subscription to training and certification

Leaders know that a skilled workforce is fundamental to unlocking value from their investment in mission-critical technologies. Keeping pace with change means that security engineers, software developers, and IT specialists are continually upskilling to solve for current and future business challenges. Okta's Premier Learning Pass is an annual subscription that arms your organization with access to the training and certification resources they need to be productive at the point of business impact.

Modern Learning Is Always On and Always Fresh

Whether you are just beginning your Okta journey or are a veteran Okta customer looking to solve amplified identity challenges, you know that training is an on-going journey. Okta's Premier Learning Pass supports your team in mastering both the fundamental and advanced use cases that are powered by the Okta service. Our course catalog is available 24/7 so you can build expertise at your own pace—and new content is added each month to reflect evolving features.

> "Okta does a stellar job in structuring the content of the course in a way that makes it very digestible. The instructor providing the training is very knowledgeable and willing to take on all questions, as they even remotely relate to the material. I couldn't have been happier with my training experience and I strongly urge anyone to take advantage."

Credentials Are Currency

Okta's acclaimed certification program provides leaders with a tool to support individual career development and close digital skills gaps on their teams. Certification ensures that those working with Okta possess the confidence and expertise to work with every element of the platform, protecting your Okta investment. Earning a certification credential means well-deserved bragging rights and a digital badge to showcase one's expertise.

"The Okta certification exam challenges your Okta knowledge thoroughly. The exam helped me identify areas that I needed to shore up, and I definitely feel more comfortable in the product by being certified."

- Senior Engineer, Financial Analyst Firms

Designing Your Education Journey

Okta's Premier Learning Pass subscriptions offer 12 months of unlimited access to an extensive catalog of on-demand courses. Learning Pass Plus also provides for unlimited enrollment in any publicly scheduled instructor-led class. Both tiers are powered by certification opportunities. When budgeting for training, companies often choose to combine Learning Passes with ad-hoc public or private instructor-led classes. Consider the near- and long-term needs of skilling up your organization and contact us for assistance in developing the right-sized learning plan for your team.

"I would say don't wait. Jump in and get the knowledge to build a robust ID management platform done correctly. It is a powerful product and like any powerful product, it needs a complete plan to execute it properly."

- Ranjit Narain, Integration Lead, Essilor of America
