If you are considering validating your Okta skills by earning your first Okta certification or earning a higher level Okta certification, take advantage of these great offers now. These offers expire on January 31, 2020, and they will not be extended under any circumstances. So, act now. The sooner you take your first exam, the more opportunity you give yourself to take other exams while this offer lasts.

How do you get these too good to be true prices?

- Register for your exam now through Examity. These offers are available on core Okta certification exams purchased exclusively through Examity.
- Use this promo code to get the discounts mentioned above: GETCERT7E1354.
- Take your exam by January 31, 2020.

You can use the discount code to take as many Okta exams as you like. You can also share this discount code with your colleagues. If you take an exam and do not pass, the standard retake policy and retake fee of $100 apply regardless of the exam. Furthermore, this discount does NOT apply to Okta Certification Maintenance Exams or Okta Certification Premier Practice Exams.

Take your Okta Certification Exam 24x7 from anywhere at any time. But, before you do, read the study guide for the associated exam, take a practice exam, and if you are pursuing your first Okta Certification, please read this short article on the Six Simple Steps to Earn Your First Okta Certification.
